

Aims and Objects

- 1.To enhance the wellbeing of physical, psychological, economical, social, environmental and spiritual by innovation, consultancy, training and education using various authentic approaches
- 2.To promote the higher experiential education of authentic Yoga and its complete activities
- 3.To facilitate the purpose of life's evolution with extra-curricular education and activities, providing educational and training programs
- 4.To advocate culture and its distinctive features with conscious-full understanding and organizing cultural productions, cultural entertainment facilities, events, exhibitions, fairs, festivals, and seminars
- 5.To liberate man from their sufferings: physical disease, mental disharmonies and spiritual ignorance through natural therapies— Ayurveda, Naturopathy, Meditation and Yoga, and to offer reconditioning and regeneration services
- 6.To provide healthiest and finest foods, including bio foods and encouraging for 'simple living and higher conscious thinking' to everyone
- 7.To establish educational and Eco conscious ashrams/centers of Sacchidanandaprem Acharya Swamin's teaching of Brahma Vidya Siddhanta of Yoga-Shastra, and of other activities of it at various places around the world and to run the foundations of Sacchidanandaprem.
- 8.To publish magazines, books, other printed material and production of video/audio of the trust's activities
- 9.To serve mankind with the activities of the purchase and sale of natural and ecological goods related to our activities
- 10.To cooperate with social partners, private sector employers, with companies providing trainings, professional associations and non-governmental organizations to expand the activities of our association
- 11.To receive and give donations from/to public bodies, corporations, businesses, individuals, foundations